

PROFILE

I have done work from shooting weddings all the way to theater premiered films and love my job whatever form it may take. I am passionate about my work and take great joy that every day I get to create. I am well versed in cameras, tech, and gear. I have used many different cameras from Red scarlets to canon C300s on a regular basis through my job. While personally owning a Sony A7III.

I am a jack of all trades able to operate almost any camera, set up a complex lighting rigs, and have a great amount of experience in all adobe sweet applications.
